 Another report had it that the Germans had been seen off the coast of Belgium, but as British war craft were bombarding Zebrugges during the greater part of last night and again today, this seems doubtful.
 Another sensation came from the east, where it is announced that German cavalry, which apparently got over the extreme sight of the Russians, has invaded the Russian Baltic provinces. There has been no indication in what force the Germans are operating, but it is presumed here that the cavalry is simply looking over the ground to find out what opposition a force landed at Pologans, in the province of Courland, would meet with. In military circles here it is asserted that this cavalry, however, can interfere with the Russian communications ever the famous Russian Cossacks meeting to do.

 At the other end of the Russian line the Russians are reported to be continuing slow progress in the Usak sea and to be repulsing Austrian attacks on their flank in the direction of Izly.
 In reply to the Zepplin visit to the city of Suffolk, England, early this morning, allied airmen have visited Belgium and bombarded Ostend and other towns and also attacked towns in southern Germany.
 Nothing of importance has occurred along the western battle front. The German claim still to hold bridgeheads on the Yser canal at Ilet Sas and near the coast. They are being attacked by the allies, who, according to all the official reports, are on the offensive in most points. The German report repeatedly refers to the repulse of allied submarines again are active. They have sunk the trawler-Lilly Dale and the steamer Mollie. German airmen is said, dropped bombs, but without effect, at the American steamer Cushman.
ENGLAND IS DIVIDED OVER LIQUOR QUESTION.
 The Times said, the Dardanelles battle of the German sea attack on Belgium is complete. It forecasts the imminent victory in favor of the question of liquor regulation in Great Britain and the fact that the government, for the first time since the beginning of the war, has

Some Pointers on Fish
 Atlanta gets the best fish that are caught.
 They come to the Fulton Market daily by fast express.
 We have them for you as fresh as you can get them at the coas.
 Caught one day off South Atlantic ports, they are here the next ready for your table.
 The U. S. Government food bureau has declared fish the cheapest food.
 While meat has advanced 100 per cent, fish remains about the same as it was. Most fish are more nutritious.
 Incidentally, the clams and soft-shell crabs are the finest we have ever had.
